Dear Ladies and Gentlemen,

It is my pleasure to invite you to attend another edition of the HOME DECOR Interior Fair. In 2010 the event will assume a new form: in a shorter period of time its scope will be expanded and the programme more diversified. First and foremost, in 2010 HOME DECOR will become a strictly business-oriented event. With corporate clients in mind, we have prepared a number of amenities, programmes and services to reap the benefits of attending the trade fair.

There is more as our mission is to combine business know-how and artistic visions. Therefore the events held in May at Poznań fair grounds will be of business and design-related nature alike. An area dedicated to design will host two prestigious events, namely arena DESIGN and moodFORM.

I deeply believe that a new and comprehensive offer prepared by Międzynarodowe Targi Poznańskie for the interior decoration industry will result in setting new trends and standards. I ensure you that we will make every effort to organize a world-class trade event.

You are more than welcome to attend it.
